

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1897.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent the value of a publication, and afford to give advertising "notices" from time to time, and to give notices over his counter free gifts of dry goods, and other goods, and to estimate business concerns. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertising is to be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they are placed.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are compelled to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Supplies

excursions, fares, or other public enter- tainments, to be charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of re- spect, &c. The latter will be charged FIVE CENTS. The latter, and hereafter this will be the irreverable rule. This, how- ever, will not apply to the death of a person.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Agreement of Disputes

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rule for Business Leads in the Public Ledger is that the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions, and for Business Leads a five-line column inserted in the paper, and for you to take care of it, says to pay a bookkeeper, but he forgets all about it. The notice runs a week, and the charge is $1.25. When he finds it out there is a good deal of trouble, however, probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate such trouble, no further notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset, and the arrangement will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Barrett of Cincinnati have returned home after a visit here.

Mrs. C. D. Lane of Hopkinsville is the guest of Misses Minnie and Anna McGehee.

Miss Mary O'Meara stays with her mother, Mrs. Alice O'Meara at Covington.

Mr. Henry A. Power is down from Paris on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Power.

Miss Salie Frank is at home from Georgetown where she was called by the illness of her brother.

Mr. Thomas Webster of Helena was in the city yesterday. He contemplates moving to Covington in the near future.

Judge Lewis and children of Charleston, W. Va., have returned home after a visit to their father, Mr. John Armstrong.

Mr. Josiah Wilson was called to Chicago Saturday by the illness of his son, Mr. James C. Wilson, who is suffering from gastric fever.

Miss Little Page of Ripley, after a month's visit with Miss Margaret Chiles of East Third street, returned home yesterday afternoon, much to the regret of her many friends.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

Old Lemonton Bourbon and Rye always in stock at John Briscoe's.

Mr. Fred. H. Traxel has been confined to his home for several weeks.

For Sale—A Pony Cart and Harness, can be seen at Daftion Bros. Stable.

Mr. John W. Power is quite sick at his suburban home on the Fleming place.

Beginning yesterday the Maysville Postoffice now receives Western and Southern mail on Train No. 2 of the C. and O., arriving at 1:30 p. m. and this office also pouches on Portsmouth by the same train. This enables the Clerk on No. 3 to work all local mail between this city and Portsmouth, thus gaining several hours in its delivery.

GAVE BOND.

Dr. S. T. McClung Gives Security and Is Released From Jail.

Just AS THE LEDGER goes to press Mr. Thomas J. Pickett, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, entered bond in $600 for the appearance of Dr. S. T. McClung at the June term of the Circuit Court, and the Doctor was released from jail.

BACK FROM CANTON.

With a wardrobe that is jaunty and a traveling bag, brand new, He is now in the station as he grants an interview. His manner's very knowing and his every glance implies that his ship has just been sighted; that his arrival is imminent. He introduces you in the management of Government affairs, And you feel that he is worthy of an office and You wonder what exalted post 'twill be his lot to gain.

He is on his way to Canton, and he's waiting for the train.

A few days later he appears. He looks a little more worn, The traveling bag seems smaller than it was when last you gazed.

When you strive for conversation, he has this to say: "Young man, beware of politics; it really doesn't pay."

He's not at all his jovial self when stoutly he says:

"My time must be devoted to my personal affairs."

There's something in his manner that pro- vokes a shiver of pain— This man who went to Canton, and has just got home again.

—W^{ASH}INGTON STAR.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;

Blue—RAIN or SNOW;

With Black ABOVE 'TWILL WARMER

Than Black's—BEHIND—COLDER 'TWILL be;

Unless Black's—no change will be.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening.

The Lexington Canning Factory will not open this year.

Mrs. L. V. Davis is able to sit up after being held five weeks.

Slop for sale in any quantity at Lime stone Distillery, beginning Feb. 8th.

Chenoweth Cold Cure, a boon to sufferers from grip; 25 cents. Wellineted.

Over 2,750,000 persons are now employed in the famine relief work in India.

The Cincinnati coal war is over and dealers have put the price back to $2 a ton.

The meeting last night of the Odd Fellows Funeral All Association did not meet.

The venerable John Short was out yesterday after being housed up for several weeks.

Mr. Robert Perrine sold 125 acres of land on Tuckhouse to Mr. Jacob Sheeler for $7,854.

L. M. Collis and D. G. Wilson qualified as Executives of the late Henry P. Wilson, with M. B. Tolle surety.

The funeral of Mrs. Phoebe Kirk, wife of Milt Kirk, who died near Minerva yesterday, will occur at Shannon today.

The New Era Restaurant will now be open all night. Lunch served at all hours.

P. LUZI & CO.

The wife of Dr. Charles P. Pinckard died in Chicago a few days since. Dr. Pinckard is a nephew of Miss Mary Hud- nut of this city.

Nearly the whole of yesterday was taken up in the Circuit Court hearing the testimony in the suit of Winter & Thomas of this city against the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company; and the case is still on trial.

There are sixteen boys in the Kentucky Penitentiary, ranging from 11 to 15 years of age. One of the youngest is Odie Kimbrough, aged 12, sent from Nicholasville for malicious cutting. He was sent for one year, and was received in November, 1886.

Valentine's Day passed without any broken noses or black eyes on account of "beautful" and "amorous" misses.

It was a day quite risky, The wheels were going round and round.

His heart was quite frisky.

What he was, the world was deep—

Was a student, but—

Up to a hole up the huts—

Within ten feet of Church.

"Poo!" Dinger drove his dry along.

And 'twas a job quite risky.

The wheels were going round and round.

His heart was quite frisky.

What he was, the world was deep—

Was a student, but—

Up to a hole up the huts—

Within ten feet of Church.

NARROW ESCAPE.

A Madman Came Near Shooting Detective Fitzgerald at Covington.

Thomas H. Wright, who went suddenly insane Saturday, was arrested in Covington yesterday morning after a desperate struggle with the officers.

Wright came within an ace of killing someone.

He pulled his revolver from his coat pocket and tried to shoot Detective Fitzgerald, who seized him, but the hammer of the revolver caught in the mad man's glove and he was unable to use it.

While he was struggling with Fitzgerald, Detectives Butler, Crim and McDermott rushed up and succeeded in landing him at Covington Police Headquarters.

There he stated that he would have killed all the officers but for the accident that happened.

Wright said that he had a good time and was ready to die.

Wright had been stopped with James Gedge, right next door to where Chief of Police Pugh lives.

Mr. W. O. Outten is now agent for The Times-Star at this place. Any one wanting the paper can notify him and he will deliver it to any part of the city.

Governor Bradley refused to pardon the imprisonment part of a sentence for carrying concealed weapons imposed upon W. B. Washburn of Flem- ington.

L. Green, County Clerk, Mt. Oliver, Ky., a 100-year-old United States and Foreign Postage and Revenue Stamp, and pays liberal prizes for same. If you have any old stamps from 1830 to 1875, send them to him and get prizes.

Three policemen were summoned to the Tennessee Senate Chamber to prevent threatened trouble between two offici- als.

A State Senator had remarked that the Superintendent of Public Instruction was a brute, a ruffian, a coward and a few other things.

They have a repertoire of highly enter- taining and original musical comedies, each and every one of which is protected by copyright ownership.

Fentrow's famous prize ideal silver cornet band and solo operatic orchestra is a special feature, while the cast in- cludes such capable artists as Miss Grace Bent, Miss Jean Bortin, Miss Grace Scott, Miss Mabel Murry, Bert Hodgkins, Edmund Brussels, Harry King, the popular Fentrow and others well known in the dramatic and vaudeville line. Fif- teen years of brilliant success attest the popularity of the Jolly Pathfinders.

Tonight "Australia" will be presented.

State Inspector Lester has had $800 in fees, claimed by the City Judge of Lexington, held up.

The Jolly Pathfinders at the Washington Opera-House All This Week.

It is with pleasure that the Managers of the Washington Opera-house announce an engagement with the best farce comedy entertainers traveling, Fentrow's Jolly Pathfinders, who will hold a laugh- ing festival at the Opera-house all this week, and judging from last night's produc- tion of "Below Zero," they should have a crowded house all week.

They have a repertoire of highly enter- taining and original musical comedies, each and every one of which is protected by copyright ownership.

Fentrow's famous prize ideal silver cornet band and solo operatic orchestra is a special feature, while the cast in- cludes such capable artists as Miss Grace Bent, Miss Jean Bortin, Miss Grace Scott, Miss Mabel Murry, Bert Hodgkins, Edmund Brussels, Harry King, the popular Fentrow and others well known in the dramatic and vaudeville line. Fif- teen years of brilliant success attest the popularity of the Jolly Pathfinders.

Tonight "Australia" will be presented.

Holiday Merchandise

Holds Sway at Ballenger's!

Diamonds, in all mountings;

Clocks, in every variety;

Dishes and Plates, singly and in sets;

Solid Silverware, in newest designs;

Cut Glass, in exquisite patterns;

Watches and Jewelry, without end.

Prices, the very lowest.

BALLINGER, Jeweler

A new complaint was filed against Butler, the alleged Australian cut-throat.

Lyman J. Gage was tendered a fare-well dinner by the Chicago Commercial Club.

Postmaster General Wilson has been elected President of Washington and Lee.

In another place will be found notice of the sale of two tollhouses on the Washington and Clark's Run Turnpike, one house near Washington and one near Fernleaf, sale to take place Saturday, February 27th.

Y. M. C. A. PARAGRAPHS.

Interesting Items That Every Man in Maysville Should Read.

The Boy's Rally on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock was more largely attended than the January service had been, and a good interest was shown.

Mr. Joseph Easton spoke very helpfully on the subject "The Boy Daniel."

"First Aid to the Injured" will be the theme of a special talk to be given by Dr. C. Owens before the members and gentlemen friends of the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7:30 o'clock. After this practical talk an exhibition of the class drill and exercises in the gymnasium will be given. No admission fee, and all men invited.

The ladies of St. Patrick's Church are rehearsing a play soon to be given at the Convent of the Visitation for the benefit of that institution.

Some of the patriotic ladies of this city are arranging for an entertainment for the benefit of the Cubans who are struggling for their liberty.

Howard Blythe, about 20 years of age, wanted here to answer a charge of felonies, was arrested at Covington yesterday. He was locked up to await the arrival of a Maysville officer.

Mr. F. C. Petty, one of Maysville's best known business men, left last afternoon for Clifton Springs, N. Y. He goes for health, which has been undermined by too close attention to business, and his many friends hope he may be fully restored. His sister, Miss Anna M. Petty, accompanied him.

The junior members and their girl friends were very pleasantly entertained in the Association parlor last Saturday evening, and the "Valentine Reception," to which they had been looking forward for some time with great expectations, proved to be highly successful. The music for the occasion was kindly furnished by the Misses May Burgess, Lida Berry, May Huston January and Bessie Owens, and was enjoyed by all.

Everyone participated in the games, which occupied the first part of the evening's program, and following these was the "cake walk," a most pleasing feature to the onlookers especially. The Judges, after considerable discussion as to who deserved first mention—all had performed their part in this exercise with grace and naturalness—decided to give one of the cakes to Buford Chenoweth and Elizabeth Clinkenbeard, and the other to Lorraine Phister and Jessie Hunter. Refreshment was then provided in the form of candy dishes, and the closing feature consisted of the "Valentine Grab-bag," each one drawing from the mail pouch a pretty valentine. Before leaving the boys expressed, by a rousing "aye" vote, their thanks to the musicians and to those who had donated the cake and confections and to all who had contributed in any way to the success of the occasion.

The total descriptions of all kinds to the Tennessee Centennial Exposition now amount to about $1,000,000.

Five men, including a Constable, are under arrest in Montgomery county for the murder of J. C. Cockram.

The Mayor of Bloomington, Ill., has been indicted for permitting a notorious pickpocket to escape from the city prison.

CUM GRANO SALIS!

Craddock Says He Paid for Having His Hair and Whiskers Trimmed.

Paris Kentuckian.

In Lexington we called on the woman barber, where one of the finest looking of ladies presides—Miss Sarah J. Jones on South Broadway near Hill. She is a fine blonde, 20 years of age, 100 pounds weight. Like the usual barber, she is a fine talker.

"I came here from Beattyville to live with my sister, Mrs. Moses, wife of the drummer."

"Moses," we repeated, "I thought you looked like a pretty Jewess."

"Yes, but I'm not; I am an American," she replied.

We asked: "Are you married?"

"No, sir."

"Neither am I; but of course you wouldn't marry an old bachelor like me."

"No telling; if he could take care of me."

We had simply asked that our hair be dressed, as we wanted to make呈able appearance among some ladies at matinee to hear the play of "The Girl I Left Behind Me," as we had left Senoritas in Mexico. Canucks in Canada and other foreigners, besides our lovely Americans.

"Then," said the barber, "you better let me trim whiskers and hair, just to cut off the uneven parts."

Then again it occurred to her that we needed shampoo, and it was so agreeable to an old shambler to be thus barbecued by a lady we made no objection. After closing the barbershop she suggested our necktie needed arranging, cost dusted, etc.

"What's to pay?" we asked the charmer.

"Leave that to yourself."

"Take pay from this dollar, and I will give you $5 in published interview."

"Come back again," she suggested, as barbers always do, and we will.

Miss Jones wants to engage some other young lady to learn barbershop with her.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, a constitutional or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hail's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and the disease is removed the most sure and certain.

Hail's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is a specific known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces.

The perfect combination of the two medicines that produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Proprs., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, price 5c.

BOYS' & YOUTH'S

Calf Shoes

HIGH CUT BAL

AND BUTTON...

J. HENRY PECOR.

WAR IN CRETE.

Greek Corps of Occupation Lands Near Canea.

Demonstrations of the Wildest Joy in Athens Over the News.

One Hundred Men Each From the Russian, French, British, Italian and Austrian Fleets Occupy the City of Canea—Turkey Gives Assent.

ATHENS, Feb. 16.—The latest advices from Canea state that a heavy battle is in progress. The Christian insurgents are making a vigorous attack upon the fort with artillery, but the Turkish regulars are holding out up to last resource, although the engagement was sanguinary on both sides. The Turkish authorities at Canea have begged the commanders of the foreign fleets to make a truce to lay down the arms. They have telegraphed to their respective governments for instructions, which, as yet, have not been received.

LATEST PICTURE OF THE SULTAN

Serious fighting is also in progress in other parts of the island, with varying fortunes between the Moslems and Christians. The Greek people are in a state of frantic excitement, and are unanimous for war. King George has really no choice in this matter, the bellicose policy, which he has been adopting. The feelings of the people are beyond control, and there is little doubt that the king would be driven out of the country if he ventured to oppose them.

CANEA, Feb. 16.—The commanders of the British and other foreign warships stationed here have informed Prince George, commanding the Greek torpedo fleet, that they have received orders to prevent the occupation of the island of Crete by Greece and if necessary to use force to carry out these instructions.

ATHENS, Feb. 16.—Advises received from the island of Crete announced that the "corps of occupation," consisting of infantry, artillery and engineers, numbering 1,500 men, which embarked at Piraeus, had landed at Phourni, 14 kilometers west of Canea. The warships of the powers, these advices also state, had previous landed strong detachments at Retimo, Herakleion and Canea.

At the same time an order was made here that the corps of occupation under command of Col. Vassos, chief, had landed in Crete, demonstrations of the same joy were indulged in by the populace.

A dispatch from Canea states that Col. Vassos has issued a proclamation to the Cretans and has demanded that the Turks leave the island.

CRETE, Canea, Feb. 16.—One hundred men, each from the Russian, French, British and Italian fleets at Canea, and 50 Austrians have been landed, under command of an Italian general, who has occupied the island. The Turkish officials having given their assent to the step. The flags of the nations represented by the occupying forces were displayed upon the ramparts of the fortresses.

PARIS, Feb. 16.—In the chamber of deputies Monday M. Ilanotaux, minister of foreign affairs, replying to an inquiry by M. Jaurès, regarding the situation in Crete, said that the status of affairs in that island was such as to render a public exhibition impossible. M. Jaurès expressed his dissatisfaction with the reply of the foreign minister, and his request that the Cretan affair be discussed at once by the chamber.

Thereupon M. Meline, the president of the chamber, said that an action was impossible as far as the government was concerned, the divergence of secrets which are not France's alone and demanded that the consideration of the matter be adjourned, as this course was adopted by a vote of 320 to 100.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The Standard-Tuesday prints a dispatch from its Athens correspondent saying that the powers have decided to submit the case to arbitration, and that for Crete, the chief feature of which is the autonomy of the island under the joint rules of the powers.

The Standard's correspondent further says that he has been assured by a Greek official of high position that Emperor William of Germany used his influence very largely to effect this solution of the matter, which is hailed with delight and the crisis is considered to be over.

A French Senator.

CANADA, Feb. 16.—The United States supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the suit against the Chicago Daily Dispatch. He must go to jail for two years and pay a fine of $10,000. He was convicted of publishing obscene advertisements in his newspaper.

Prominent Operator Dead.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 16.—Thomas D. Williams, for the past 18 years the operator of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in Pittsburgh, and well-known to the fraternity throughout the country, died Monday morning of pneumonia. Mr. Williams had been connected with the Western Union for more than 60 years.

IN CONGRESS.

BANKRUPT CIVIL BILL TAKEN UP IN THE SENATE.—Washington, Feb. 16.—SARATOGA.—Monday the bankruptcy bill came up as the unfinished business.

The senate subcommittee for the bill was in session to consider the substitute for the 16 sections was offered by Neison (rep., Minn.). It was voted to accept the substitute.

A conference report on the senate bill to provide time and place for holding terms of the bankruptcy court in each state and to provide for the trial of bankruptcy cases were concurred in. A conference judicial appropriation bill was presented and agreed to. A conference was ordered on the bill to provide for the trial of bankruptcy pension bills on the calendar, numbering 24, were taken up and passed. One of these increased the pension to $6 a month.

House—The sundry civil bill was passed. House—The sundry civil bill was passed. An appropriation bill for the construction of the fortifications and the supply of national guards on the various states and territories with modern Springfield rifles; extending the time for the completion of the St. Paul, Minnesota and Duluth, Minn., railroads; and a bill authorizing the secretary of the navy to furnish a naval or other ship to transport the troops of the state of Tennessee and the claims of the state of Tennessee against the State of Georgia, was passed, and a two-thirds majority was necessary to pass the bill.

WHITE SQUADRON.

Heavy Gun Practice by the Big War-suits in Charleston Harbor.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 16.—The fortifications of the city were shelling the port of Charleston by American gunners. The fleet consisted of some heavy gun practice by the entire squadron. Shortly after 1 o'clock the ships moved into the harbor and began putting out floating targets at distances ranging from 400 to 1,000 yards, began to get their main batteries into action.

The line of action was the same as that which the fleet has observed during the other blockade work, the Massachusetts to the north and then the Maine, Amphitrite, New York, Indiana, and the Atlanta at a distance of 300 yards apart.

The targets used were the ordinary floating triangles, of seven feet to the side.

The practice began at 1:15 in the afternoon and continued without interruption until 3:30 p. m.

The main batteries of the ships are the Massachusetts, four 13-inch, eight 8-inch

and four 6-inch guns.

The Indiana, four 13-inch, eight 8-inch

and four 6-inch guns.

The Amphitrite, four 10-inch and two 4-inch rapid-fire guns; the New York, six 6-inch and 12 four-inch rapid-fire guns; the Indiana, four 13-inch, eight 8-inch and the Columbus, one 8-inch, two 6-inch and eight 4-inch rapid fire guns.

The guns in the individual ships are in action only, and the individual ships are in action only, and the gunners are not to be held responsible.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The Editor of The Ledger is not responsible for opinions expressed by Correspondents; but nothing reflecting upon the character of any person will be admitted to these columns.

Correspondents will please send Letters to the Editor as soon as possible. Give facts in a few words as possible. We want news in this department, and not advertising notices or political arguments.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Pendleton—Joseph W. Williams.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.
Benton—John Moore.
Benton—John Moore. The trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line, says The Chicago News.

"Wait till you see the fight," he said to a passenger as he started in. And he advanced meekly up to the women. "Fares, please," he said.

And each woman dove down into a large black reticule and brought up a large, shiny purse, gave him five pennies, and, turning to the other, started in on lively conversation.

"Fares, please," repeated the Conductor.

"What's the matter?" demanded one of the women. "Ain't that enough? What are you charging now—10 cents a ride?" and she looked over at her friend and smiled knowingly.

"You'll have to pay for those children," said the Conductor.

"Pay for them? Well, I guess not. Why, I never heard of such a thing. I never had to pay for them before!"

"Well, you'll have to pay for them now," said the Conductor, dryly.

"Why, I won't do it. It's outrageous."

"Well, you'll have to get off, then," said the Conductor.

"What's that?" angrily demanded the other woman. Say, Mr. Smyth, my husband knows a man that works for this company, and he'll see that you lose your job. Why, goodness gracious, did you ever hear of such a thing?" And she seemed terribly shocked.

"Well, I can't help that," said the Conductor. "You'll have to pay your fare or get off," and he reached menacingly for the bell rope.

"Say," said the other woman savagely, as she reached for her purse again. "I wish I was a man. I'd show you!" And then they gave him fifteen pennies apiece and watched him until he ran them up.

"Hm," said the Conductor, exasperatingly, and he started away.

"That's all right, you brute," exclaimed the woman. "I'll teach you something—I'm a lady, I am."

"That so!" said the Conductor. I'm glad you told me—I wouldn't have known it."

"Oh! oh!" said the woman.

And the Conductor went out and stood on the platform and smiled all the while until they got off.

A man in Detroit is engaged in the laborious but not undurable undertaking of writing 16,000 words on a postal card. He often indites 760 words on the back of a two cent stamp.

John Mills, as administrator of his father's estate, has sold at Rome, Ga., a bale of cotton which his father raised in 1872. The father refused to sell it at twenty-two cents, deeming the price too low, and held it for a rise. It was sold at five and four-fifths cents.

The Editor of The Ledger is not responsible for opinions expressed by Correspondents; but nothing reflecting upon the character of any person will be admitted to these columns.

Correspondents will please send Letters to the Editor as soon as possible. Give facts in a few words as possible. We want news in this department, and not advertising notices or political arguments.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.
Benton—John Moore.

Business men are in the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line, says The Chicago News.

"Wait till you see the fight," he said to a passenger as he started in. And he advanced meekly up to the women. "Fares, please," he said.

And each woman dove down into a large black reticule and brought up a large, shiny purse, gave him five pennies, and, turning to the other, started in on lively conversation.

"Fares, please," repeated the Conductor.

"What's the matter?" demanded one of the women. "Ain't that enough? What are you charging now—10 cents a ride?" and she looked over at her friend and smiled knowingly.

"You'll have to pay for those children," said the Conductor.

"Pay for them? Well, I guess not. Why, I never heard of such a thing. I never had to pay for them before!"

"Well, you'll have to pay for them now," said the Conductor, dryly.

"Why, I won't do it. It's outrageous."

"Well, you'll have to get off, then," said the Conductor.

"What's that?" angrily demanded the other woman. Say, Mr. Smyth, my husband knows a man that works for this company, and he'll see that you lose your job. Why, goodness gracious, did you ever hear of such a thing?" And she seemed terribly shocked.

"Well, I can't help that," said the Conductor. "You'll have to pay your fare or get off," and he reached menacingly for the bell rope.

"Say," said the other woman savagely, as she reached for her purse again. "I wish I was a man. I'd show you!" And then they gave him fifteen pennies apiece and watched him until he ran them up.

"Hm," said the Conductor, exasperatingly, and he started away.

"That's all right, you brute," exclaimed the woman. "I'll teach you something—I'm a lady, I am."

"That so!" said the Conductor. I'm glad you told me—I wouldn't have known it."

"Oh! oh!" said the woman.

And the Conductor went out and stood on the platform and smiled all the while until they got off.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.
Benton—John Moore.

Business men are in the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line, says The Chicago News.

"Wait till you see the fight," he said to a passenger as he started in. And he advanced meekly up to the women. "Fares, please," he said.

And each woman dove down into a large black reticule and brought up a large, shiny purse, gave him five pennies, and, turning to the other, started in on lively conversation.

"Fares, please," repeated the Conductor.

"What's the matter?" demanded one of the women. "Ain't that enough? What are you charging now—10 cents a ride?" and she looked over at her friend and smiled knowingly.

"You'll have to pay for those children," said the Conductor.

"Pay for them? Well, I guess not. Why, I never heard of such a thing. I never had to pay for them before!"

"Well, you'll have to pay for them now," said the Conductor, dryly.

"Why, I won't do it. It's outrageous."

"Well, you'll have to get off, then," said the Conductor.

"What's that?" angrily demanded the other woman. Say, Mr. Smyth, my husband knows a man that works for this company, and he'll see that you lose your job. Why, goodness gracious, did you ever hear of such a thing?" And she seemed terribly shocked.

"Well, I can't help that," said the Conductor. "You'll have to pay your fare or get off," and he reached menacingly for the bell rope.

"Say," said the other woman savagely, as she reached for her purse again. "I wish I was a man. I'd show you!" And then they gave him fifteen pennies apiece and watched him until he ran them up.

"Hm," said the Conductor, exasperatingly, and he started away.

"That's all right, you brute," exclaimed the woman. "I'll teach you something—I'm a lady, I am."

"That so!" said the Conductor. I'm glad you told me—I wouldn't have known it."

"Oh! oh!" said the woman.

And the Conductor went out and stood on the platform and smiled all the while until they got off.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.

Business men are in the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line, says The Chicago News.

"Wait till you see the fight," he said to a passenger as he started in. And he advanced meekly up to the women. "Fares, please," he said.

And each woman dove down into a large black reticule and brought up a large, shiny purse, gave him five pennies, and, turning to the other, started in on lively conversation.

"Fares, please," repeated the Conductor.

"What's the matter?" demanded one of the women. "Ain't that enough? What are you charging now—10 cents a ride?" and she looked over at her friend and smiled knowingly.

"You'll have to pay for those children," said the Conductor.

"Pay for them? Well, I guess not. Why, I never heard of such a thing. I never had to pay for them before!"

"Well, you'll have to pay for them now," said the Conductor, dryly.

"Why, I won't do it. It's outrageous."

"Well, you'll have to get off, then," said the Conductor.

"What's that?" angrily demanded the other woman. Say, Mr. Smyth, my husband knows a man that works for this company, and he'll see that you lose your job. Why, goodness gracious, did you ever hear of such a thing?" And she seemed terribly shocked.

"Well, I can't help that," said the Conductor. "You'll have to pay your fare or get off," and he reached menacingly for the bell rope.

"Say," said the other woman savagely, as she reached for her purse again. "I wish I was a man. I'd show you!" And then they gave him fifteen pennies apiece and watched him until he ran them up.

"Hm," said the Conductor, exasperatingly, and he started away.

"That's all right, you brute," exclaimed the woman. "I'll teach you something—I'm a lady, I am."

"That so!" said the Conductor. I'm glad you told me—I wouldn't have known it."

"Oh! oh!" said the woman.

And the Conductor went out and stood on the platform and smiled all the while until they got off.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.

Business men are in the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line, says The Chicago News.

"Wait till you see the fight," he said to a passenger as he started in. And he advanced meekly up to the women. "Fares, please," he said.

And each woman dove down into a large black reticule and brought up a large, shiny purse, gave him five pennies, and, turning to the other, started in on lively conversation.

"Fares, please," repeated the Conductor.

"What's the matter?" demanded one of the women. "Ain't that enough? What are you charging now—10 cents a ride?" and she looked over at her friend and smiled knowingly.

"You'll have to pay for those children," said the Conductor.

"Pay for them? Well, I guess not. Why, I never heard of such a thing. I never had to pay for them before!"

"Well, you'll have to pay for them now," said the Conductor, dryly.

"Why, I won't do it. It's outrageous."

"Well, you'll have to get off, then," said the Conductor.

"What's that?" angrily demanded the other woman. Say, Mr. Smyth, my husband knows a man that works for this company, and he'll see that you lose your job. Why, goodness gracious, did you ever hear of such a thing?" And she seemed terribly shocked.

"Well, I can't help that," said the Conductor. "You'll have to pay your fare or get off," and he reached menacingly for the bell rope.

"Say," said the other woman savagely, as she reached for her purse again. "I wish I was a man. I'd show you!" And then they gave him fifteen pennies apiece and watched him until he ran them up.

"Hm," said the Conductor, exasperatingly, and he started away.

"That's all right, you brute," exclaimed the woman. "I'll teach you something—I'm a lady, I am."

"That so!" said the Conductor. I'm glad you told me—I wouldn't have known it."

"Oh! oh!" said the woman.

And the Conductor went out and stood on the platform and smiled all the while until they got off.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.

Business men are in the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line, says The Chicago News.

"Wait till you see the fight," he said to a passenger as he started in. And he advanced meekly up to the women. "Fares, please," he said.

And each woman dove down into a large black reticule and brought up a large, shiny purse, gave him five pennies, and, turning to the other, started in on lively conversation.

"Fares, please," repeated the Conductor.

"What's the matter?" demanded one of the women. "Ain't that enough? What are you charging now—10 cents a ride?" and she looked over at her friend and smiled knowingly.

"You'll have to pay for those children," said the Conductor.

"Pay for them? Well, I guess not. Why, I never heard of such a thing. I never had to pay for them before!"

"Well, you'll have to pay for them now," said the Conductor, dryly.

"Why, I won't do it. It's outrageous."

"Well, you'll have to get off, then," said the Conductor.

"What's that?" angrily demanded the other woman. Say, Mr. Smyth, my husband knows a man that works for this company, and he'll see that you lose your job. Why, goodness gracious, did you ever hear of such a thing?" And she seemed terribly shocked.

"Well, I can't help that," said the Conductor. "You'll have to pay your fare or get off," and he reached menacingly for the bell rope.

"Say," said the other woman savagely, as she reached for her purse again. "I wish I was a man. I'd show you!" And then they gave him fifteen pennies apiece and watched him until he ran them up.

"Hm," said the Conductor, exasperatingly, and he started away.

"That's all right, you brute," exclaimed the woman. "I'll teach you something—I'm a lady, I am."

"That so!" said the Conductor. I'm glad you told me—I wouldn't have known it."

"Oh! oh!" said the woman.

And the Conductor went out and stood on the platform and smiled all the while until they got off.

OUR AGENTS. The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LENDERS in their respective localities:

Miners—Frank W. Hawes.
Springfield—B. O. Dryden.
Springfield—J. J. Jackson.
Maplewood—W. J. Jackson.
Vicksburg—J. W. Stewart.
Mrs. Cornell—Kelly & Foxworth.
Albion—J. W. Stewart.
Muncie—Springfield Hunter.
Dover—John Moore.
Mt. Gilead—Jacob Thomas.

Business men are in the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at the office.

To Henry W. Ray's for Pure Drugs and Sundries. Prescriptions a specialty.

Dillard Rainey was given the death penalty in Winchester for the murder of Aaron Adams.

The Secretary of State of Kentucky is receiving numerous calls from other states for copies of the Kentucky election law.

The many friends of Mrs. Patrick McHugh will regret to learn that she continues quite ill at her home on the Germantown pike.

W. W. Stubblefield, J. D. Mayhugh and C. E. Rummans have been appointed appraisers of the personal estate of the late Henry P. Wilson.

J. Pierpont Morgan and August Belmont are back of a combination to pool the 140 whisky distillers of Kentucky. It will require $6,000,000.

FARES, PLEASE!

Hard-Hearted Conductor Made the Ladies Toe the Mark.

They were two determined-looking women, and when they got on the car with six unsexed-looking children, with unruly-looking hair and severely-shined shoes, he anticipated trouble and his lips drew up in a tight line